after it has downloaded, please unzip it.

Please now go to your antivirus settings and turn off "real time protection" and the "firewall" if you have an installed antivirus software, if you just use Windows defender, you should then go to Control Panel>Security>Windows Firewall and turn off all toggles that allow you to do so.

Next open Control Panel>Programs and Features and uninstall "Sentinel Runtime" from the list.

Now, go to the unzipped HASP folder and open the folders until you get to then double-click to install.
