

All Because Two People Fell in Love

I love the sentiment for this, the perfect Valentine's wish for nature's most perfect Valentine--a sweet baby!

I saw this saying on a sign above a baby's crib and couldn't wait to recreate it with a heart applique, perfect for a baby's onesie, a baby blanket or a bib.

The free .jef embroidery download makes it quick and easy—just three color changes. I used my Artistic Edge cutter to cut out the SVG file provided along with the embroidery download. I hope you enjoy!

Instructions:
